

CHAPTER IV. Unity of Revelation—Unity of Form

- | | |
|--|----|
| 1. Calvin's distinction between the form and content of revelation | 40 |
| 2. Old Testament forms of revelation closely related to those of the New Testament | 41 |
| 3. The form of Christ as foreshadowed in the Old Testament | 42 |
| (i) In the historical form of Israel | |
| (ii) In individuals within Israel | |
| (iii) In the political institutions of Israel | |
| (iv) In the ritual of the law | |
| (v) In signs and visions | |
| (vi) The spiritual and eternal as foreshadowed in the material and temporal | |
| 4. Conclusion | 59 |

CHAPTER V. The Uniqueness of Revelation

- | | |
|---|----|
| 1. Christ as the only valid and satisfying source of revelation | 61 |
| 2. The folly and ingratitude of turning from Christ to other supposed sources | 62 |
| 3. The place of natural religion as a source of the knowledge of God | 65 |
| 4. The place of the liberal arts and sciences as a source of the knowledge of God | 67 |
| 5. The perversity of man's mind as a barrier to any true knowledge of God outside of Christ | 69 |

CHAPTER VI. The Place and Function of Word and Sign in the Event of Revelation under the Old Covenant

- | | |
|---|----|
| 1. The use of word and sign | 71 |
| 2. The word as interpreting the sign | 72 |
| 3. The sign as confirming the word | 73 |
| 4. The sign as testifying to the real presence of God | 75 |
| 5. The sign as representing a spiritual gift | 76 |
| 6. The sign as indicating the limits of man's mind | 78 |

CHAPTER VII. The Preached Word as the Word of God

- | | |
|---|----|
| 1. Preaching as the Word of God | 82 |
| 2. Preaching as a sign of the presence of God | 84 |
| 3. Preaching as the instrument of Christ's rule | 85 |